Refund & Cancellation Policy

Refunds will be paid directly to the person who enters into the contract with the university, unless that person gives written direction for the refund to be paid to someone else. Refunds will be paid in the same currency in which the fees were paid. Applications for refunds must be made in writing to the English Programs Manager, for a decision by the Director of International Education. Tuition fees are not transferable to other institutions or other students. Where an enrolment has been made through an agent, the refund will be made through the agent.

The enrolment fee of $200 is not refundable. Tuition fees will be refunded, less a cancellation fee, if a student withdraws from a program before the program starting date. If the enrolment is cancelled more than 4 weeks before the program starting date, tuition fees will be refunded, less a 10% cancellation fee. If the enrolment is cancelled less than 4 weeks before the program starting date, tuition fees will be refunded, less a cancellation fee of 25%. Refunds are not made after the commencement of the program. Total or partial refunds may also be given in exceptional circumstances which prevent a student taking up a place. These circumstances include: inability to obtain a student visa, illness or disability, death of the student or a close family member, political, civil and natural events which prevent full payment of fees. Documentary evidence must be provided. Where a student is eligible for a refund because the student has withdrawn from a program, the refund will be made within four weeks of the University receiving a written request for a refund.

If the University is unable to provide a program for which a student has an offer of a place, all fees are fully refundable. Refunds will be made within two weeks of the cancellation of the program. Alternatively, the student may accept an offer of a place in a substitute program.

This agreement does not remove the student’s right to take further action under Australia’s consumer protection laws. The University’s dispute resolution processes do not circumscribe the student’s right to pursue other legal remedies.
